cleared for New York on the 10th instant carrying 583 steerage and — cabin passengers. Three steerage passengers were rejected at the inspection. Both of these ships sailed with steerage baggage not inspected and bearing no labels.

Respectfully,

E. K. SPRAGUE,

Passed Assistant Surgeon, U. S. M. H. S.

The SURGEON-GENERAL,

U. S. Marine-Hospital Service.

BRAZIL.

Report from Santos—Steamship Bellarden clears for New York.

SANTOS, BRAZIL, February 21, 1900.

SIR: I have the honor to report herewith that the British steamship Bellarden, Alexander, master, clears from Santos, Brazil, this day, February 21, 1900, for New York, N. Y., via Rio de Janeiro, with a crew of 31, including the master.

The said steamship entered Santos February 17, and has had no sickness on board while in this port. I have also to report that said port of Santos is at this date free from any contagious disease, excepting yellow fever, of which there have been 12 cases and 6 deaths during the week ended February 16, 1900.

The crew of said steamship Bellarden, numbering 31, all told, including the master, were mustered and inspected just prior to departure, and all passed satisfactorily.

Respectfully,

WM. H. CARSON,

Acting Assistant Surgeon, U. S. M. H. S.

The SURGEON-GENERAL,

U. S. Marine-Hospital Service.

The SURGEON-GENERAL,
U. S. Marine-Hospital Service.

Report from Havana.

HAVANA, CUBA, March 21, 1900.

SIR: I have the honor herewith to submit the report, for the week ended March 17, of mortuary statistics:

The general health of the city continues good, except there is a considerable amount of la grippe prevalent. The number of cases of yellow fever have declined from what they were in February. This is not unusual. Nine new cases are reported for March to date. The efflux from America to Havana has been very marked for the last week and is increasing.

Respectfully,

H. R. CARTER,
Surgeon, U. S. M. H. S.

The SURGEON-GENERAL,
U. S. Marine-Hospital Service.
